

Most of you have probably read or heard about the incident described below. I am interested in speaking with anyone who was present and observed the actions of the police. If anyone can assist it would be greatly appreciated.

FAIRFAX COUNTY, Va. (WUSA) -- Fifty-three-year-old Timmy Hall was being laid to rest Thursday when the hundreds of mourners in his funeral procession, who were riding motorcycles, were pulled over by Fairfax County police. Timmy Hall lost his life in a motorcycle crash a week ago.

Not only did police pull over the entire funeral procession, according to numerous witnesses, they threatened to use a taser on the dead man's brother.

Story here: <http://www.wusa9.com/news/article/163455/77/ONLY-ON-9-Police-Allegedly-Hassle-Funeral-Procession>

Matt Danielson

McGrath & Danielson

Tom McGrath's Motorcycle Law Group

1-800-321-8968

Motorcyclelawgroup.com